The Law of CORRESPONDENCE (Immutable)

“As above, so below; as below, so above. As within so without, as without so within.” – The Kybalion

(SEVEN articles on how to be in HARMONY with the Will-of-GOD and the Universe)

How does this SECOND of the seven Universal Laws unfolds? Also known as the Law of Analogy, this Law tells us that there is “harmony, agreement and correspondence” between the laws and phenomena of the various planes of Being and Life; between the Physical, Mental and Spiritual Planes. There is no separation since everything, including you, is Mind. The only difference is the rate of vibration. And the grasping of this Law gives one the means of solving many a dark paradox, and hidden secret of Nature. There are planes beyond our knowing, but when we apply the Law of Correspondence to them we are able to understand much that would otherwise be unknowable to us.

All planes of existence from the smallest electron to the largest star, from the visible Physical Plane to the invisible Spiritual Plane follows the same pattern. These divisions are more or less artificial and arbitrary, for the truth is that all of the three divisions are but ascending degrees of the great scale of Life, the lowest point of which is undifferentiated Matter, and the highest point that of Spirit. And, moreover, the different Planes shade into each other, so that no hard and fast division may be made between the higher phenomena of the Physical and the lower of the Mental; or between the higher of the Mental and the lower of the Physical. In short, the Three Great Planes may be regarded as three great groups of degrees of Life Manifestation.

Really, the practical use of this Law is that it allows you to logically understand the nature of those things beyond your understanding by studying the nature of those things that you do understand and then finding the analogy. For instance, by understanding the creative aspect of Universal Mind, you can precisely understand how your MIND creates your REALITY. The earth is a place of learning where our lessons are presented to us by making our outside world an exact reflection of our inner world. If you feel secure, loved, safe and happy inside you will have secure, safe and happy people in your LIFE. If you feel angry, self-critical or feel rejected deep inside, you will have people who get angry at you, or put you down or who abandon you.

Merrily, a Blessed Beyondist may recognize what is meant by this when we state that the meaning of “Spirit” is akin to “Living Power”, “Animated Force”, “Inner Essence”, “Essence of Life,” etc., which meaning must not be confounded with that usually and commonly employed in connection with the term, i. e., “theology, dogma, ecclesiastical, spirituelle, ethereal, holy,” etc., etc. The word “Spirit” is used in the sense of “The Animating Principle,” carrying with it the idea of Power, Living Energy, Mystic Force, etc. We must also know that, that which is known as “Spiritual Power” may be employed for evil as well as good ends, a fact which has been recognized by the majority of religions in their conceptions of Satan, Beelzebub, the Devil, Lucifer, Fallen Angels, etc.

Optimally, the universe rearranges itself to reflect your reality. Literally as within so without. You can understand the state of your outer physical world by looking at your inner mental world. Similarly, your inner mental world can be revealed to you by looking at your outer physical world. The New Thought author, James Allen, perfectly captured this Law when he said, “Circumstances do not make a man, they reveal him.” The Ancient Greek Temple of Apollo at Delphi was referring to this great Law in the inscription: “Know thyself and thou shalt know all the mysteries of the gods and the Universe”. Knowledge of this Law is one of the most important mental instruments by which one is able to pry aside the obstacles which hid from view the Unknown. It enables one to reason intelligently from the Known to the Unknown. Studying the monad, one understands the archangel.

Notically, your body is a mirror of your deep, often unconscious, inner feelings. The left side of our body reflects our attitude to women and the past. The right side reflects our attitude to men and the future. The words we choose to use also reflect the condition of our bodies. So if we want to change something in our lives then we need to alter our beliefs and attitudes in order for our outer world to change. The universe rearranges itself to bring you what you believe. On Earth as it is in Heaven. The Universe loves you and holds a vision of your future as an enlightened person no matter what mistakes you are making on Earth. God does not judge you, only encourages.

You have free will to make your own choices in LIFE. God will not force you to do his will. The Universe waits without judgment as we experience and learn. When we are ready it opens new doors. God wants us to be happy, fulfilled, prosperous and healthy. You must understand that the goal of mankind is knowledge. Now this knowledge is inherent in every human being. No knowledge comes from outside: it is all inside. What we say a person ‘knows’, should, in strict psychological language, be what he or she ‘discovers’ or ‘unveils’; what one ‘learns’ is really what one discovers by taking the cover off one’s soul, which is a mine of infinite knowledge.
